KEON SMITH

ksmith80@terpmail.umd.edu | (301) 537-2234

EDUCATION

University of Maryland, College Park | B.A. Journalism, Philip Merrill College of Journalism Expected May 2029

- Interdisciplinary Business Honors (IBH) | Banneker/Key Scholar (full scholarship) | Schanwald Sports Management Program, Cohort 5
- GPA: 3.72

Central High School | Capitol Heights, MD Class of 2025

- Salutatorian | 4.9 GPA

SKILLS

Languages: French — Fluent; Seal of Biliteracy; DELF B1 & B2 certified | Italian — Basic proficiency
Analytical & Technical: Microsoft Excel, quantitative analysis, data analysis, research, CLV/CAC analysis
Business & Communication: Operations, problem solving, strategic thinking, public speaking, written and presentation skills

BUSINESS & ANALYTICAL EXPERIENCE

Interdisciplinary Business Honors, University of Maryland | Honors Coursework

- Analyzed customer economics in Excel using Customer Lifetime Value (CLV), Customer Acquisition Cost (CAC), and CLV:CAC ratios to evaluate customer profitability.
- Assessed how acquisition costs relate to long-term customer value to support business recommendations.
- Worked in teams on quantitative business problems and communicated findings through analysis and presentation.

Schanwald Sports Management Program, University of Maryland | Cohort 5 Member

- Study business operations, organizational management, and strategic decision-making in the sports industry.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Washington Commanders (Washington, D.C.) | Stadium Events & Operations Intern, College Program 2026 – Present

- Support stadium operations for home games and major events serving 67,000+ fans in a large, fast-paced organization.
- Work with operations and event teams to identify and resolve guest and event issues in real time.
- Support Ticket Operations and back-end functions, gaining exposure to operational processes across an NFL organization.
- Help implement customer service strategies aimed at improving guest experience and satisfaction.

Washington Nationals (Washington, D.C.) | Guest Services Ambassador 2025 – 2026

- Resolve guest issues and provide venue guidance for 40,000+ fans per game, managing a high volume of interactions.
- Apply problem-solving and conflict-resolution skills while enforcing stadium policies and safety procedures.

D.C. United / Audi Field (Washington, D.C.) | Guest Services 2026 – Present

- Provided guest services and venue navigation support for fans at the 20,000-seat home of D.C. United, resolving issues in a fast-paced live-event environment.
- Represented the organization professionally while enforcing venue policies and maintaining a welcoming atmosphere.

GOALKEEPERS, 2026 FIFA World Cup (Baltimore, MD) | Journalism Intern 2026

- Researched, pitched, and developed stories, evaluating information from multiple sources for accuracy.
- Wrote and produced radio scripts and packages broadcast on WEAA 88.9 FM, meeting tight deadlines across multiple assignments.

LEADERSHIP & CAMPUS INVOLVEMENT

Mentor | Informal — younger students & family members Ongoing

- Provide informal mentorship to younger students and family members on academics, career planning, and personal development.

Black Business Association (BBA), University of Maryland | Member 2025

- Attend general meetings and events focused on professional development and networking within the Black business community.

National Association of Black Accountants (NABA), University of Maryland | Member 2025

- Attend meetings and events supporting career development and networking in accounting and business.